DETAILED ACTION

Lack of Unity

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Methods directed to disorders

- A. Muscular
- B. Tremors
- C. Gastro-intestinal
- D. Modulation of peripheral cannabinoid receptors

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single disclosed species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election. Further, Applicants are to elect a single disclosed method, associated with an elected single disclosed species of a disclosed compound defining the substituent A of compounds of formula I or Ia to be either hetero-containing or non-hetero-containing, to be examined on the merits.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1621

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1-40

2. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

the methods/disorders are varied and may be treated by a plurality of pharmaceuticals, known in the art, as in the use of antacids or laxatives for gastrointestinal disorders.

further, the species of compounds of formula I or Ia have the substituents that are either hetero-containing or non-hetero-containing, which make the structures disparate and would not easily suggest each other to one of ordinary skill in the art,

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
